

Automatic Delivery Pressure Control (ADPC)

Main Feature: The ADPC allows the MuCell System to automatically control the SCF Delivery Pressure to the polymer melt based on process conditions and user set-points.

Benefits:

- Allows operator to change process conditions without having to manually adjust the delivery pressure
- Eliminates manual adjustment of the delivery pressure regulator
- Improved SCF delivery accuracy